Davis Graham & Stubbs Partner, Christine Arguello, Selected to Lead University of Colorado - Boulder Counsel Office

April 13, 2006 -- Davis Graham & Stubbs is pleased to announce that Christine M. Arguello has been named as Managing Senior Associate University Counsel for the University of Colorado's Boulder campus. Ms. Arguello, a litigation partner at DGS since 2004, will be taking a leave of absence from her private practice at DGS to assume her new role at the University effective April 24, 2006. During her leave Ms. Arguello will continue to assist DGS in its internal litigation training, associate mentoring and diversity development efforts.

As Managing Senior Associate University Counsel, Ms. Arguello will lead a team responsible for advising the Boulder Campus on legal issues such as regulatory compliance, employment law, intellectual property, constitutional and civil rights, and the application of Federal, State, Regents and University laws and policies. As a member of the Chancellor's Cabinet, Ms. Arguello will assist in the development and implementation of campus policies and long-term strategic plans for the Boulder Campus. She will also represent the campus and University before legislative bodies and administrative agencies, and be a community diplomat for the University.

Commenting on Ms. Arguello's departure, Chris Richardson, the firm's managing partner noted that "This is a bittersweet moment for the firm. On the one hand, we are sad to be losing Christy's experience and talent on behalf of our clients. On the other hand, we know that this is a great opportunity for both Christy and the University, and we are looking forward to the day when Christy will return to private practice at DGS."

Ms. Arguello stated that "Leaving DGS to assume this position was not an easy decision for me to make. However, I dearly love CU and it is an honor for me to be able to return to my undergraduate alma mater as legal advisor and counselor. I look forward to working with CU administration, faculty, staff, and students on legal matters and on the development and implementation of a long-term strategic plan for the Boulder Campus."
